WINE NOTES

Our Sauvignon Blanc has long paid homage to legendary Loire Valley winemaker Didier Dagueneau, whose use of oak barrels breathed new life into the variety's potential for complexity and ageability. With the 2024 vintage, the presentation evolves with a bottle that reflects the classic elegance of Sancerre's most celebrated expressions, finally matching the style we have always pursued.

Bright, crisp acidity is augmented by a rich mouthfeel imparted by judicious aging in French oak. The aromatic Sauvignon Musqué clone adds layers of complexity, while restraint in the cellar allows the purity of Moon Mountain Vineyard's terroir to shine through. The result is a wine that bridges Old World refinement with California's vibrant fruit expression.
